Synopsis

It's Been A Whole Three Months!!!

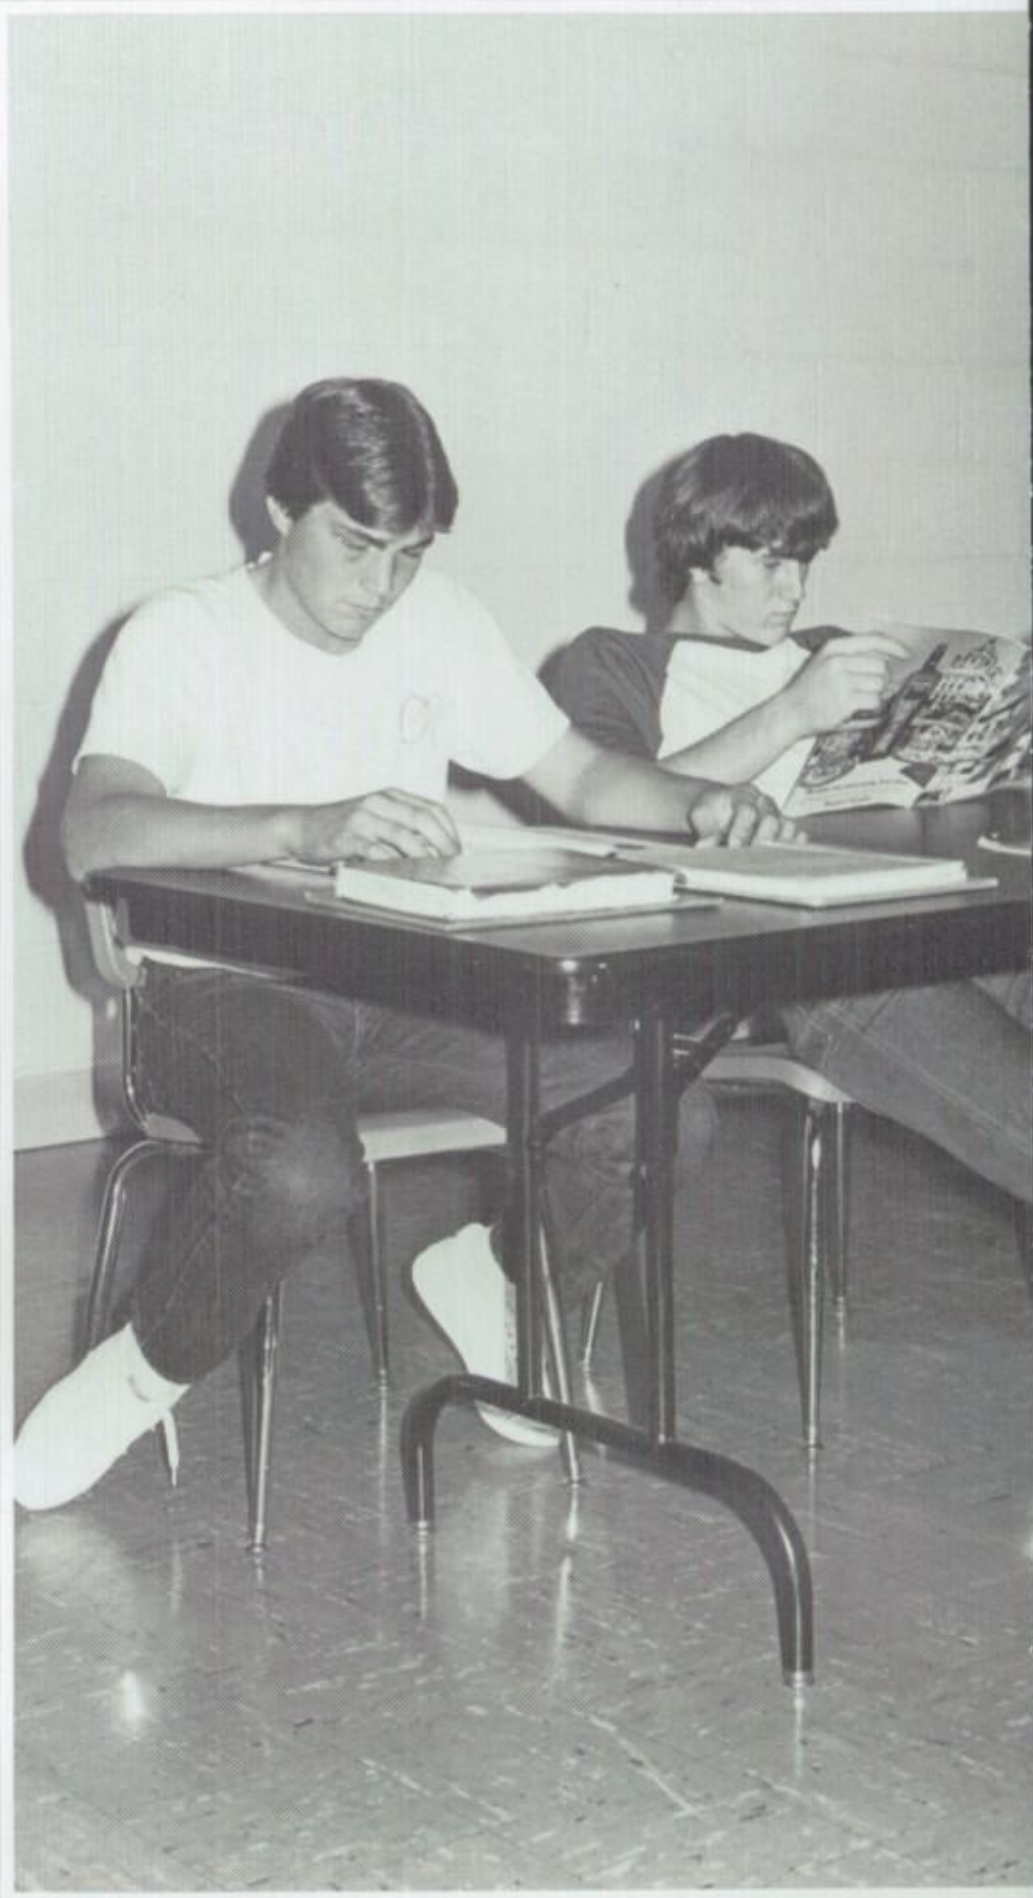

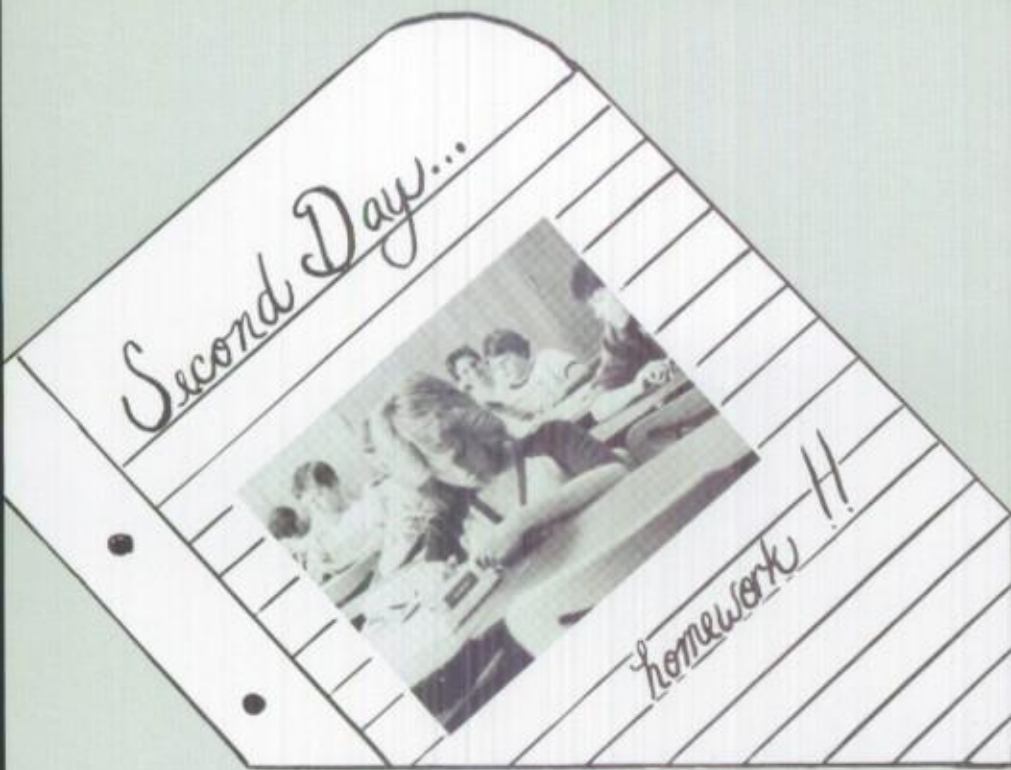

The date is August 29, 1983. Through the halls of Hopewell-Loudon, shouts of surprise and exclamation can be heard as old friendships are renewed and new friends made.

There is a hum of excitement in the air as the first bell rings. The thoughts on almost everyone's minds were similar . . . "Can I get to class on time? . . . Do I know how to use a combination lock? . . . Am I going to enjoy my classes? . .

As the last period of the day nears, the hum has died down, and the students look tired. Their thoughts are centered on upcoming activities and goals set for the new year. After all, the year has just begun . . .

It's Only The Beginning

Of A Hard Day's Year's Work

... As the week proceeds, it won't take long to get back in the swing of things, get used to classes, or get involved in activities. Homework is already piling up and hard work is just beginning. You'll begin to hear common complaints . . . Not enough time . . . Too much homework . . . I'm tired . . . This is so boring . . . I don't wanna do this . . . This is so stupid!

However, hours of demanding work and dedication will prevail, because this is only the beginning of A Hard Day's Year's Work.

The Man With The Key . . .

Ray Valentine has devoted himself to Hopewell-Loudon School as well as to the Bascom Community. He takes great pride in his work, and is highly recognized and appreciated by many.

He services the school in countless ways such as fixing windows, doors, and lights, repairing the heaters in classrooms and the ever seemingly defective boiler in the boiler room. On the whole, he maintains and up-keeps the school building as well as its grounds.

Thus he may conceivably be referred to as "Mr. Do All". However, in addition to this, he is often thought of as the "Head Honcho" or "Chief Bus Driver", in that for many years, Ray has driven a daily morning and afternoon bus route, and has transported many of our athletes to and from sporting events by bus or by his van.

Everyday, students, teachers, and administration alike hear the jingling of his keys as he walks down the corridors or while he is loading up a bus for another outing. He is the only person around that has the keys to every lock in this school. Moreover, though, he possesses one very important key; that being the key to the community's, students', parents', and faculty's admiration and respect.

Thus the 1984 Scarlet and Gray yearbook has been dedicated to the one and only . . . Ray Valentine!

Thanks Ray!

Touching the hearts of all at Hopewell-Loudon was Kirsi Hamalainen, a native of Lappeenranta, Finland.

She enjoys anything that has to do with sports and summer, even to the point of drawing a crowd during the Senior Class trip because of her sheer delight with the simplest pleasures.

Kirsi, always happy, enthusiastic, and a perfect lady, taught H-L students not to take for granted the joys we can share right now.

Thank you, Kirsi, for the gifts of love and happiness you have given us.

Music

The Music Man

Three delighted audiences were charmed by the magic of the Music Man on the evenings of April 6th, 7th, and the afternoon of the 8th. The stage was set in River City, Iowa in the year 1912, during the height of the traveling salesman era. A sly Harold Hill (Grant Cover) plotted to swindle the entire town by convincing children and adults that an organized boys' band was the only way to avoid corruption. His scheme was to collect uniform and instrument payments then skip town before delivery.

Professor Hill spent his time explaining the "think system" of playing the instrument without a horn, and captivated the townsfolk with his wit and smooth tongue. He handled the local school board (Jon Junp, John Oleson, Sean Clouse, and Tom Weaver) by introducing them to 4-part harmony; he assisted Eulalie Macecknie Shinn (Erika Forman), the mayor's wife, in discovering her "talent" for dance; and Professor Hill even had in his plan the enchantment of Marian, the town librarian and music teacher (Sandy Painter), by pouring on the affection she refused to accept. However, in the process, the tables were turned, and the elusive Professor got his foot stuck in the door. He was enchanted by the town and Miss Marian. With an enthusiastic chorus supporting them, a proud boys' band played their first piercing notes under the direction of Professor Hill.

Drama Club

Since 1973, H-L choirs have established a record of excellence by reaching toward perfection at district and state levels. This year the well rehearsed group came home from district contest with an outstanding series of superior ratings and were the only Seneca County choir that qualified to go on to state.

Several weeks of additional practice, including one week of silent instruction, since Miss Plassman was plagued with laryngitis, resulted in an excellent rating at state.

District Band

Solo and Ensemble

Officers

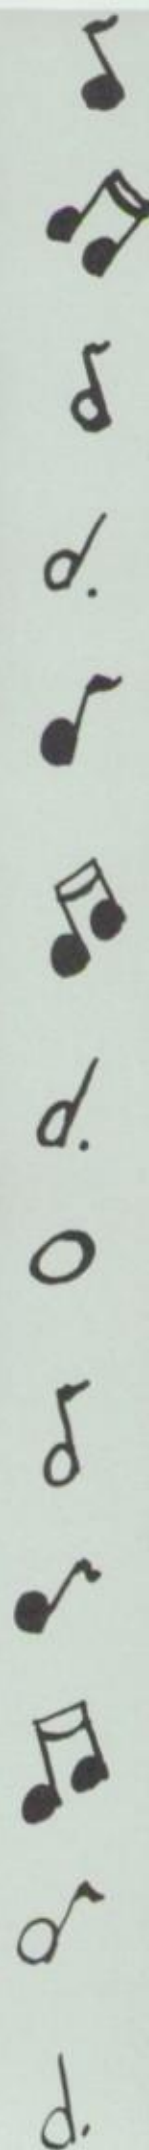

The Hopewell-Loudon band had a very busy year.

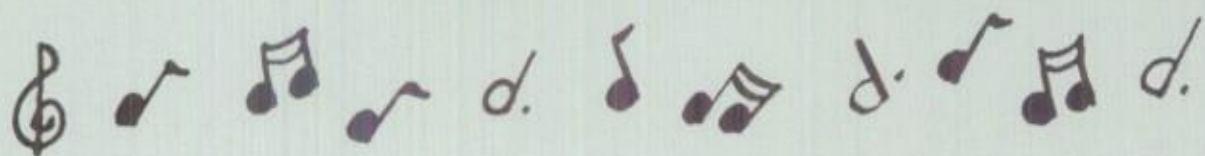

They served as entertainers and instilled school pride at all home football games and some away games.

The band hosted and participated in the third annual band spectacular. Then it was on to district and state competition for the H-L musicians.

Under the direction of Frank Zurlo, they received a superior at district competition and straight I's at state competition. This accomplishment at state competition was even more special because it occurred on Mr. Zurlo's birthday.

Congratulations to the band and Mr. Zurlo on a job well done and good luck for the years to come.

Take one part exclusive camp for young ladies, add to it one part social misfits from across the lake, and you have a heaping batch of trouble that lived up to the title Krazy Kamp. Eve Hunnicut (Marcia Gaietto) newly appointed director of the meticulous Camp Pocahontas and assistant Alva Doright (Pam Hoffman) set themselves up for hot water when they permitted the filth of neighboring Camp John Smith temporary lodging while they conducted a lukewarm attempt at clean-up of their own camp. Since work was not in the vocabulary of either Adam Apple (Keith Hohman) or Willard (Grant Cover), the clean-up never got off the ground. When the state inspector arrived, half blind with broken glasses, the conniving crew pulled a switch so that their camp would be reinstated while the deserving Camp Pocahontas would not be renewed. That wasn't all Eve had to worry about; there was Hildegard (Kandi Sullenberger) vying for her job; a runaway Kate Millfloss (Cherrie Lauer) standing in for Linda Biddle (Teresa Mosier) who took off to get married; Alva's cousin Elmer (Jeff Margraf) and sidekick Cleopatra (Tricia Main) hiding from the clutches of villains Clams Marinara (John Myers) and Dixie (Joyce Frank); Vivian Vandersnap (Elaine McKinnon) the thorn among the roses; Theodora Wolfswinkle (Lynda King) the compulsive eater; and in the middle of it all, camp owner, Mrs. Thistlemist (Sandy Painter) cut her vacation short to check out the scandalous rumor of boys on the premises.

Long Awaited Victory Highlights Festivities

History was made late on the evening of October 7, 1983 at the Hopewell-Loudon football stadium. Queen Pam Hoffman and an excited court looked on as the mighty Chieftains seized the first homecoming victory of the eighties and the first ever conference win over Ottawa Hills.

Jeff Craft opened scoring early with a one yard surge that was followed by a two point conversion. Ottawa Hills struck back by taking the lead with two touchdowns in the second quarter. The Chieftains refused to be set back, and before the end of the half, they were back on the prowl to even the score. Third quarter action produced a goal each for the neck and neck contenders, but it was one final drive with 5:26 left on the clock that brought the emotion charged Chieftains to a 26-20 victory.

The unprecedented game was preceded by a week full of spirit lifting events: a fifties day, class cheers, all sports day, and the traditional bonfire to name a few. The Saturday night dance was lead by the music of H-L's own Todd Bishop and Company. Even Jim, the phantom senior, made his appearance, bow tie and stiff shirt to boot.

Beaches And Basking (Then Sunburn)

For a brief escape from their hard senior year, the senior class chose Florida and a cruise to the Bahamas as their trip destinations. They left Bascom at the dreadful hour of 3:00 am on March 25th and arrived via air fare in Tampa at 9:30 am. After a 2 hour bus ride, they pulled into their Orlando hotel, the Continental Plaza.

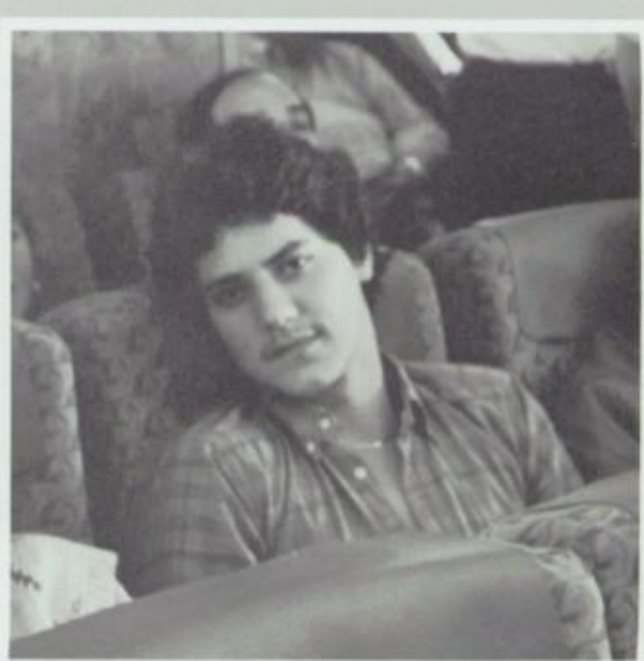

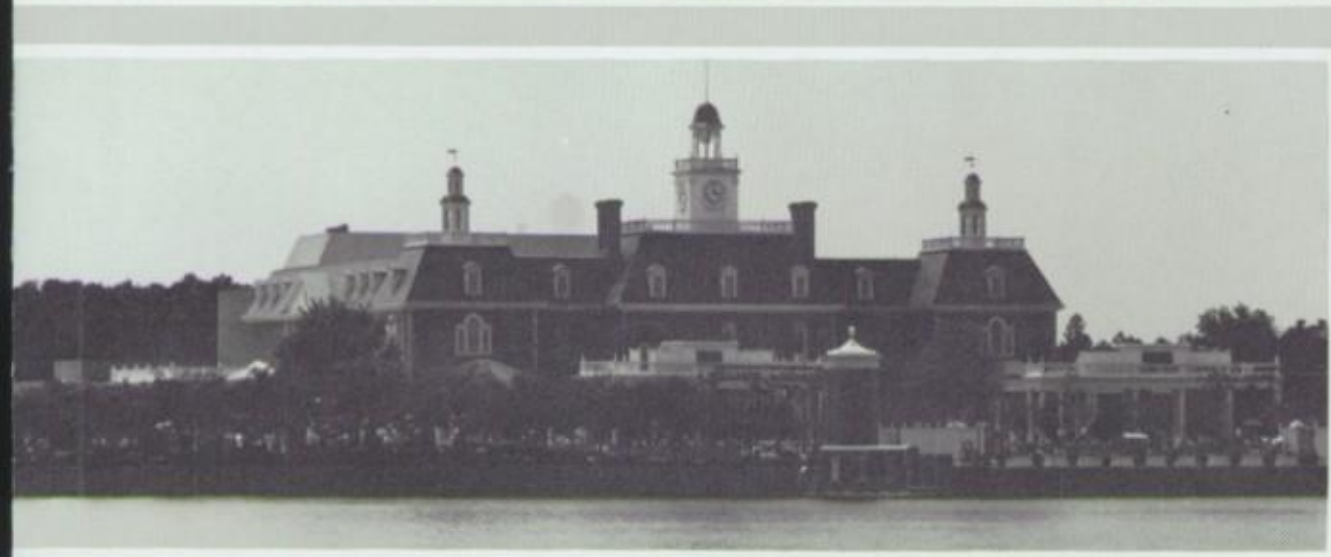

A number of attractions caught the seniors' eyes including the water slides at Wet and Wild, a theater production of South Pacific, and a day and a half patronizing the recreational spots of Disneyland, Epcot Center, and Sea World.

The long awaited cruise was without question, the climax of the trip. The sun-lovers set sail from Miami, Wednesday, March 28th, aboard the Scandinavia Sun bound for clement Bahamas. There they met townspeople and many tried their hand, or shall we say tongue, at bartering. Upon their return to Florida, and yes, one more night at that icky hotel, the now slightly red seniors traveled to Daytona for one last exposure to the Florida rays. Further details of the trip may be jostled from any senior who went with the passwords "Hector" or "Landshark".

Advisor, Miss Matsick, summed up her experience in this way, "I can honestly say that if I had the opportunity to take another trip with the same group of kids, I wouldn't hesitate to do it."

50 Seniors Class Trip

On May 27, 1984, at 2:00 p.m., seventy-one senior classmates nervously walked from the school to the football stadium. As the wind raced in all directions, so did the minds of each senior. Some recalled their years together, some thought of their future plans, yet others thought only of that special day. All, however, could not believe that the time had finally come—they were graduating.

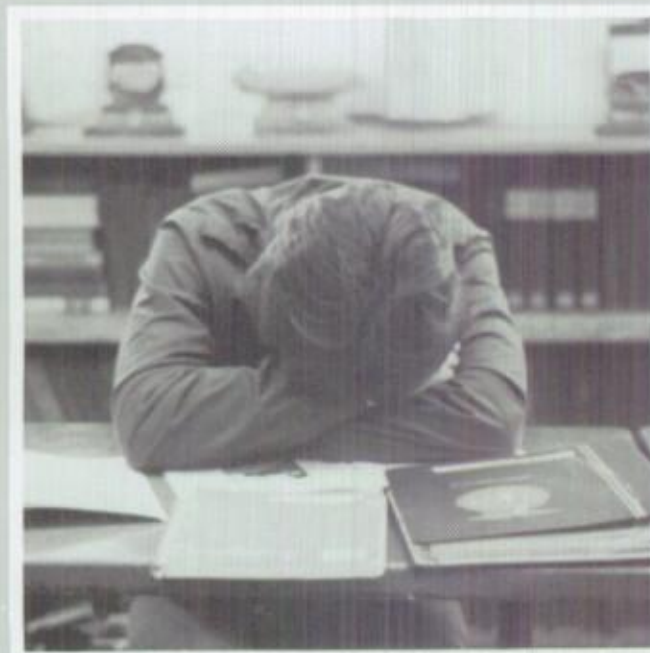

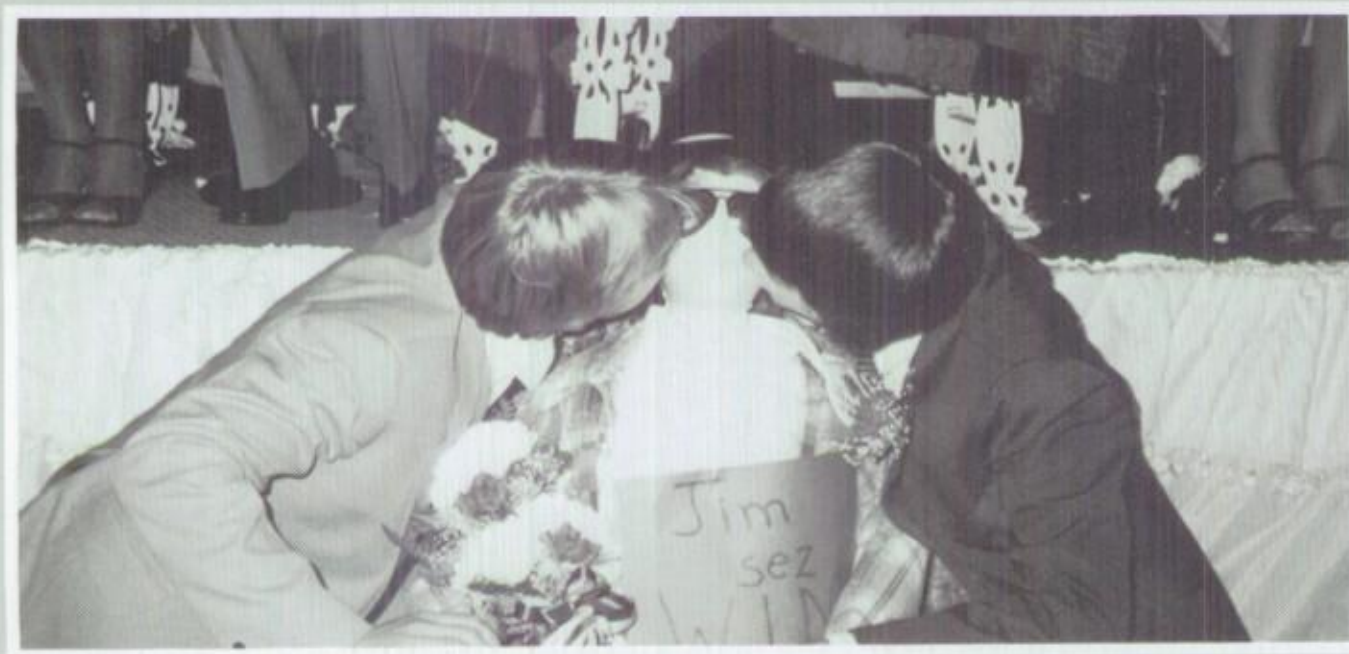

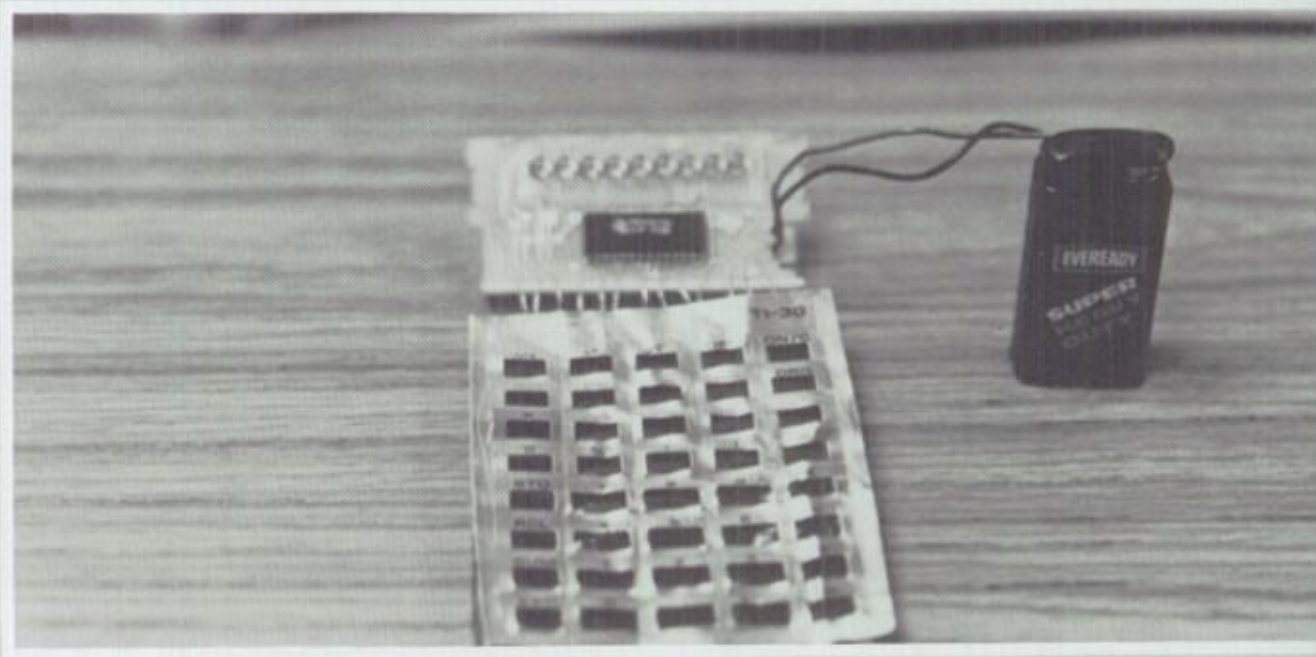

As the band played, the seniors quietly took their seats on the field and faced proud parents, relatives and friends. After the invocation, the singing of the senior choir, and the issuing of a number of academic honors and scholarship awards, three respected seniors gave moving commencement speeches. Their words of recollection, accomplishments and wishes to each to obtain his goals, will remain forever in the minds of each classmate.

At last the moment came for each senior to receive his well-earned diploma—the finalization of his high school years, yet the beginning of his new life.

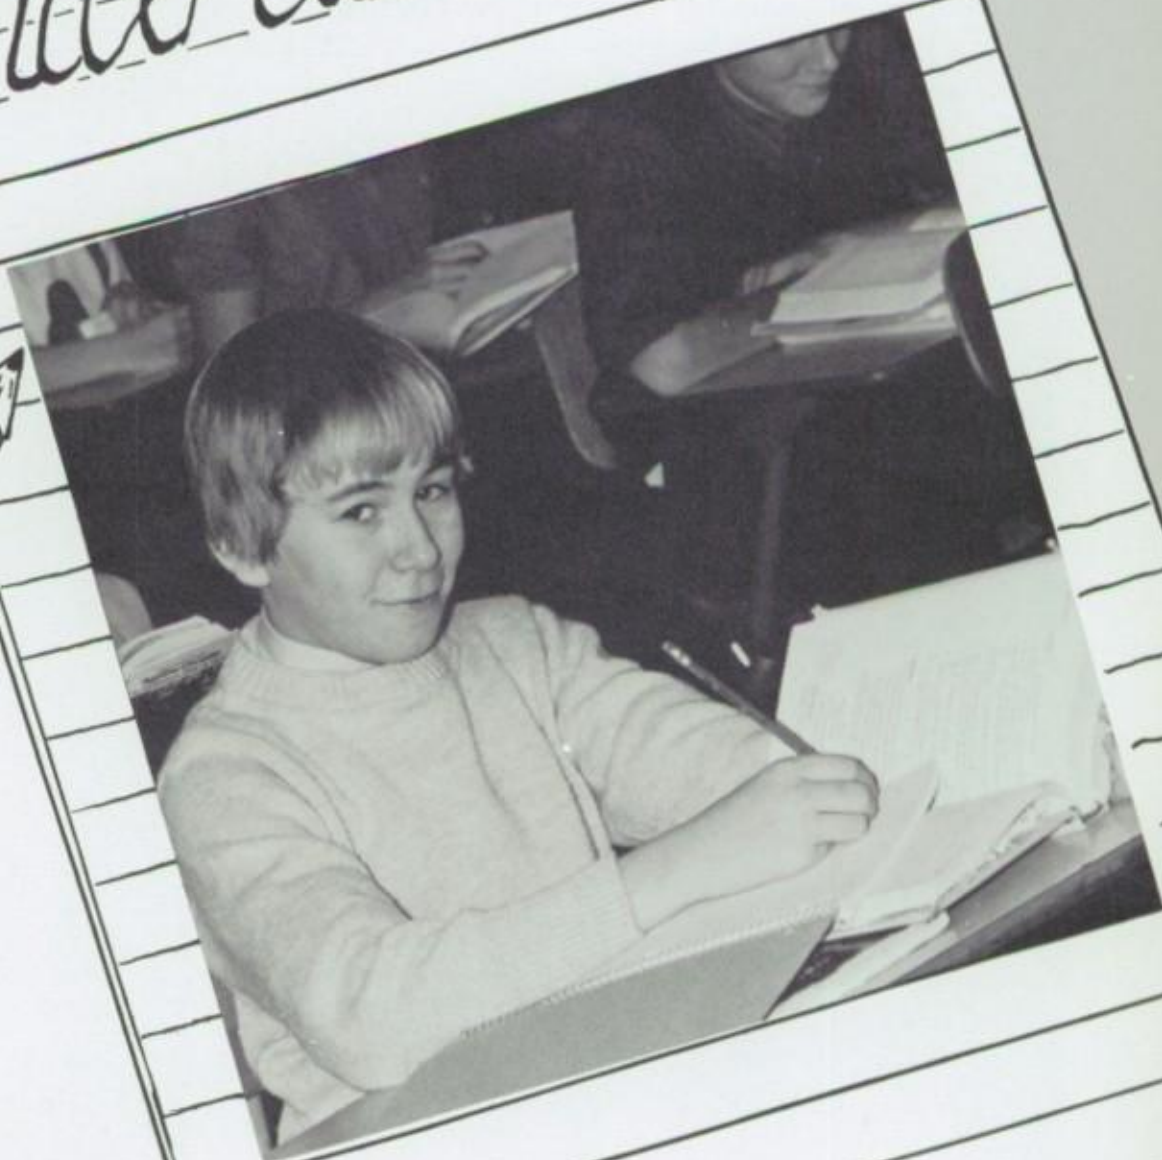

After the tassel ceremony and the benediction, caps were thrown and screams and tears of joy came from each member of the Class of '84.

"Teaching Is Not An Overnight Job"

Exclusive Interview By
Tricia Main

How do you describe this special individual, Mrs. Celeste Brickner? She is a teacher, you might reply. A teacher as defined by Webster's New Concise Dictionary is simply someone who communicates knowledge. We of the Scarlet and Gray Staff believe that Mrs. Brickner goes beyond this definition. Words like devotion, experience, patience, and love of children must be added to complete the picture.

Graduating from Bowling Green, with an adoration of the school setting, Mrs. Brickner began her teaching career in 1933. Her first assignment was in a one room school house. The books she had available were the New Education Reader and the Hamilton Math Series. In this series, 3rd, 4th, and 5th graders used one book then 6th, 7th, and 8th graders continued with the second. Students used 1/3 of the book each year. When she left the one room school, Mrs. Brickner taught at St. Mary's 6 years, Thompson School 6 years, and St. Andrew's (also a one room school) before she came to Hopewell-Loudon.

Since 1976, Mrs. Brickner has been volunteering her time with children needing help improving comprehension skills in reading. She does it, she says, to keep in touch with the community and, of course, the children.

Mrs. Brickner mentioned one highlight from her many years of service. Once in 1945, they were let out of school on December 8th because of bad weather and didn't return until February 8th. In order to catch up with the school work, they had to go to school on 3 or 4 Saturdays, and gym was cancelled for the rest of the year. And we thought 6 snow days were bad

Mrs. Brickner shared with the Scarlet and Gray Staff some of her insights towards her chosen vocation. When asked about the changes in education through the years, Mrs. Brickner replied; "There aren't any major ones. It has always been the same story. We still need the basic fundamentals."

She went on to explain that "Teaching" is not an overnight job. Her advice to new teachers entering the profession was, "You have to love work and children and put up with disappointments. You have to work until you achieve what you want."

Voice of the Creative Community

exclusive interview by:
Berta Alvarado &
Tricia Main

Tucked away in the tiny village community of Bascom, Ohio, exists a genuine art buff who has combined his artistic and journalistic talents to produce a quality informative publication dedicated to the promotion of the independent culture of Ohio and beyond.

A graduate of the Columbus College of Art and Design and Ohio State University, the Bascom native and established artist, Tracy Hunker, began his journalistic experience in the humble halls of Hopewell-Loudon as editor of the yearbook and the Hopewell Harold. After college, he returned to Bascom with a desire to provide a promotion service for Ohio independent artists. Therefore, in 1979, he started the fanzine, Testube, which is a magazine of sorts devoted to the specific interests of one item. When it began, Testube catered to art but has since expanded to art technology, computers, and music. Testube Cassettes are now available to publicize the music of independent bands reviewed by Mr. Hunker. Testube has over 30 subscribers as close as Tiffin, and as far away as New York and Sweden. The publication is funded mainly by Mr. Hunker himself and the sale of products presented in the fanzine.

The philosophy behind Testube and other fanzines is to provide an outlet for struggling independents to develop and publicize their particular creative form free of the constraints imposed by major label companies. Too often, an artist's creative potential is stifled by the major company's demand for quantity and profit. Testube is not unique. At any one time there may be up to 6 similar publications actively promoting art forms in Ohio. What is different about Testube is its flexibility to meet the current needs. Most fanzines have a maximum life of about three years before interest subsides. Testube is now completing its fifth year of growth with no signs of faltering.

What about the future? Mr. Hunker predicts, "Five years from now, these magazines will be common place. They will be everywhere . . . They first started on the east and west coasts and a few stores in the midwest that catered to that type of thing. The west coast had about 100 of them going at one time, but they died out. The way I see it, that any town, any size, will have some kind of fanzine going. Independent music or anything independent is going to be bigger or at least as big as the major labels." When asked about his predictions of the type of art forms that will be popular, Mr. Hunker made this comparison:

"Video and computers started out about the same time on equal footing. Everybody thought an independent video revolution was in the works through the cable system. But, that just didn't happen because the major labels took over the cable and have really taken over distribution of video tapes to the stores. Meanwhile, computers have taken off tremendously. When looking at the ratio of computer magazines to video magazines, there is just no comparison. The reason is computers have hundreds of different companies and most of your computer magazines are full of small company ads. Especially the magazines devoted to one computer. Like me, a one man business advertising their software. Again, the reason (for the growth) is many from the grass roots level. Music grass roots independents will take over major labels. Basically because a lot more companies will be in the game, not just a few."

For anyone interested in following the arts, we are proud to have an expert right here in Bascom. Mr. Hunker knows the movement of the arts. As he stated, "Testube gets me into things before anyone else." Though he wouldn't recommend fanzine publication as a career for just anyone. He says if you enjoy the work of helping others to get the battle won, it's worth it.

The Chieftains held their ground this year and are going to be a lot tougher to beat in the future as they improve in size and might with each passing season. The players no longer make a young team, they are an experienced squad with pride that stands high above the crowds. Tough as nails, maybe even tougher, the Chieftain troop has come the distance. Remember, you can not build a team in one day. You have to work at it, and work at it until you're good, the best you can be. We at H-L have finally attained our goal... the best. Wasn't it worth the wait?

A. Lady runners hear some inspiring talk from Mrs. C. Larry Steinmetz, setting the standards. C. Hey guys, this is cross country—aren't you supposed to be running? D. "I think I can, I think I can, I know . . . E. Ken knows the secret. Opposite page: A. Running isn't that bad, look how much fun Angie and Shelly have. B. Veteran Keith Hohman can handle his competition.

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY: Kneeling: K. Sayre, L. Steinmetz, K. Scaife. Standing: Coach Grandall, J. Margraf, K. Hohman, T. Souder, K. Sendelbach.

The Hopewell-Loudon cross country squads held out for full awards this past season. Veteran Keith Hohman set a new school record for the 5,000 meters with a time of 16:46. The girls' squad undoubtedly completed a season of which they could be proud. Finishing second in the Tiffin sectionals, the girls went on to districts for the first time in the history of girls' cross country at H-L. Both squads represented our school well in the Seneca County League and in the Lakeshore Conference. The boys finished an overall second in the L.S.C. and third in the S.C.L., while the girls' squad collected both the L.S.C. and S.C.L. championships. Individual honors include Phyllis Arbogast, Amy Fetzer, Tina Arbogast and Keith Hohman—first team all-conference S.C.L. and Phyllis, Amy, Keith, Shelly Wise and Kevin Sendelbach—first team all-conference L.S.C.

Records are made to be broken, and no one proved this more than the 1983 golf team. With a final tee-off of 323 points in the S.C.L. championship, the group of golfers set a new team record for Hopewell-Loudon. Causing another change in the record books was sophomore Brian Huff who tied four-year veteran Todd Bishop's record low of 73.

The boys ended an impressive season with an overall record of 31 wins to 10 losses, a S.C.L. record of 5-1 and a L.S.C. tally of 3-0. The highlight of the season was the qualifying of Brian Huff to the districts, an honor which was not easily attained. Brian tied his opponent with a score of 73, and continued into sudden death playoff where Brian won his sectional medal.

Other individual honors include first team S.C.L.—Todd Boes; second team S.C.L.—Todd Bishop and Brian Huff; first team L.S.C.—Todd Bishop and second team L.S.C.—Brian Huff. Brian also earned the team's most valuable player award, while Todd Boes earned the title of most improved.

Rewriting the record books this year, the H-L Lady Chieftains overcame the loss of five graduated seniors and dominated the S.C.L.

The Chieftains bumped, set and spiked their way to a final record of 20-3, counting tournament play, a S.C.L. title and a 2nd in the L.S.C.

The returning letter winners took the reins of leadership early and the younger players developed rapidly. An outstanding effort was put forth from the following S.C.L. and L.S.C. team selections: Joyce Frank, first team S.C.L. and L.S.C.; Pam Hoffman, first team S.C.L. and second team L.S.C.; Cheryl Ardner and Angela Mosier, second team S.C.L. and L.S.C.

Volleyball foes should beware of next year's squad for the Chieftains will have six returning letter winners and a sharp corps of young players.

Last but not least, we must congratulate the Junior Varsity Volleyball Team. The squad consisted of 3 juniors, 5 sophomores, and 8 freshmen. The team finished an excellent undefeated season with a record of 21-0. They captured both the Lakeshore and Seneca County League titles.

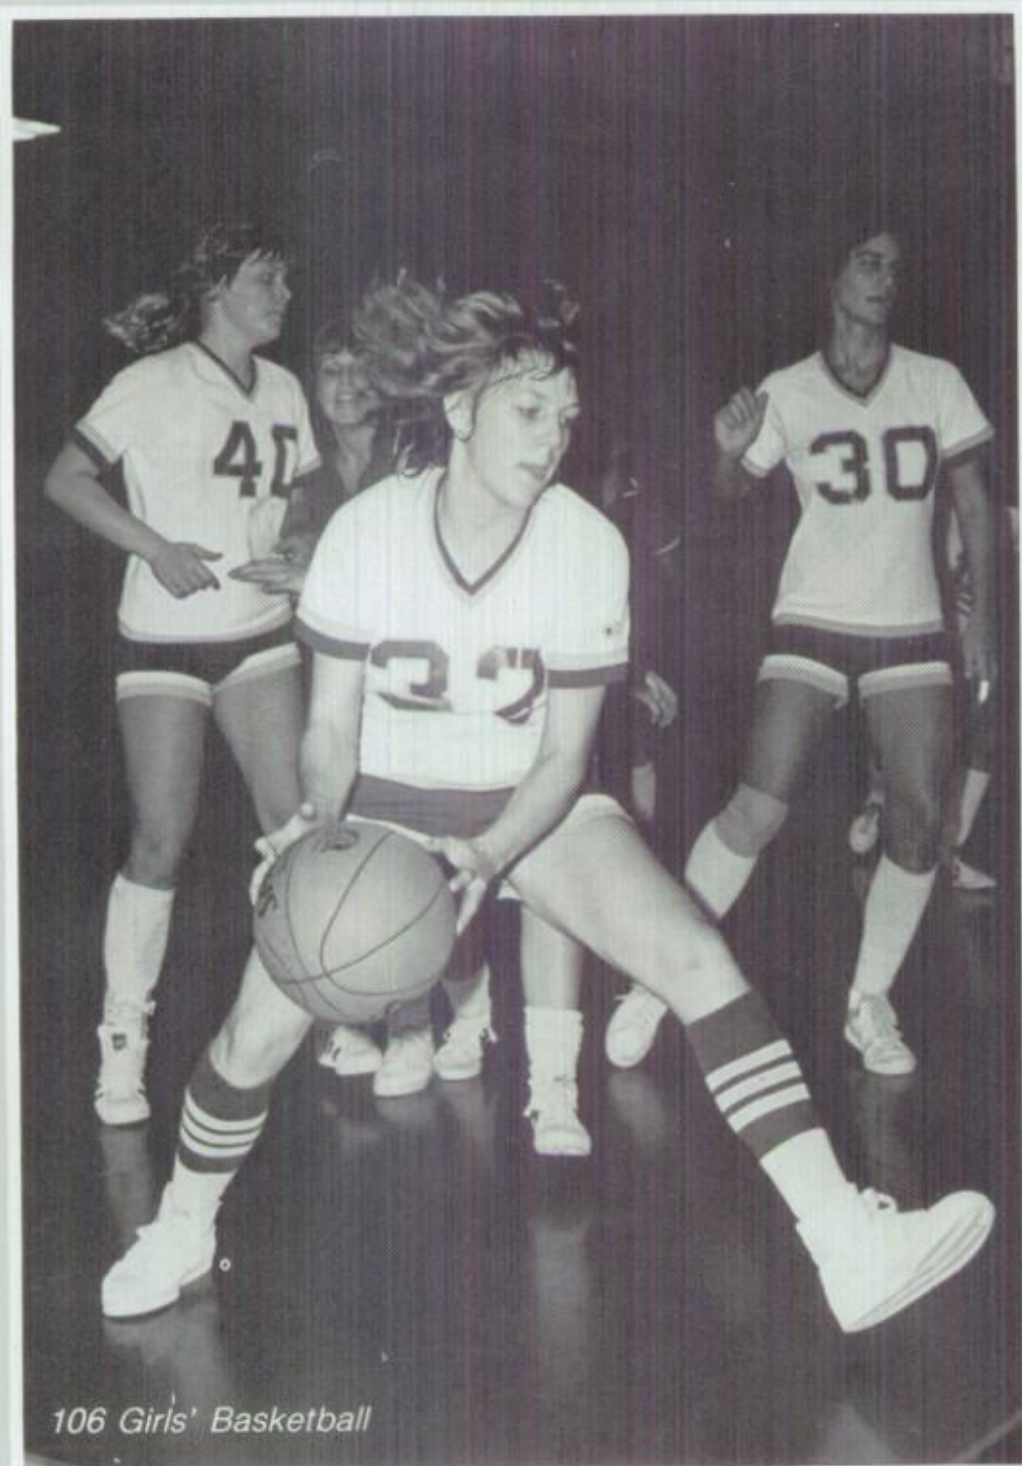

Congratulations and good-luck next year to Coach Roby and her team.

It looked as though the Lady Chieftains would have a slow start after their opening loss to Lakota, but this was not the story. The ladies rose to the occasion in fine H-L fashion and racked up a five-game winning streak. The Chieftains, through accurate shooting and tough defense, racked up scores such as 115-23 against Northwood, 96-32 against Bettsville, and 80-9 also against Bettsville.

The Lady Chieftains did not fare as well, however, in tournament play. They won their first tournament game only to be knocked out by St. Wendelin in the second.

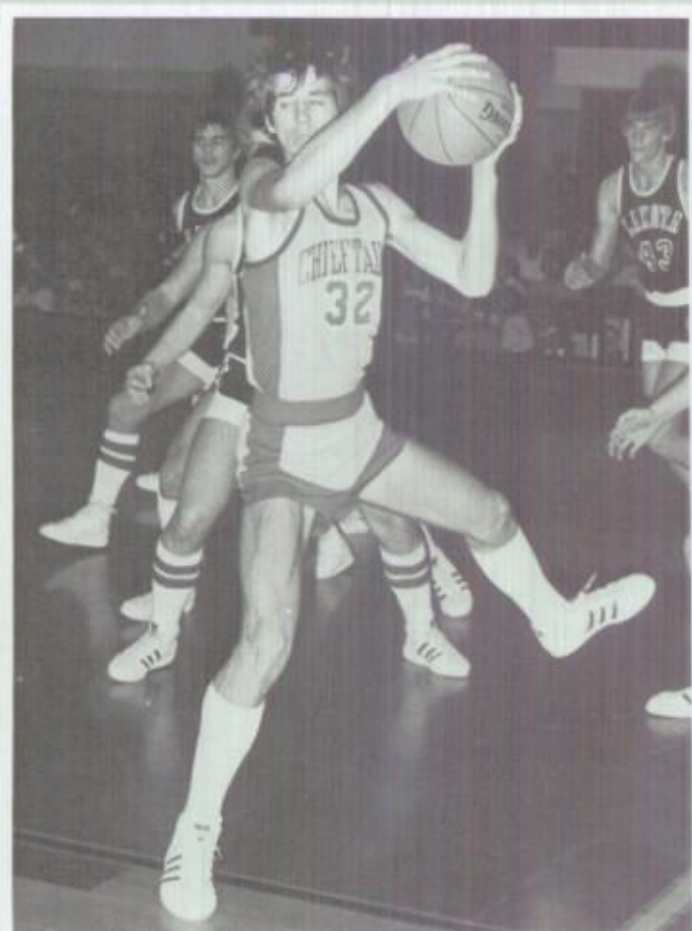

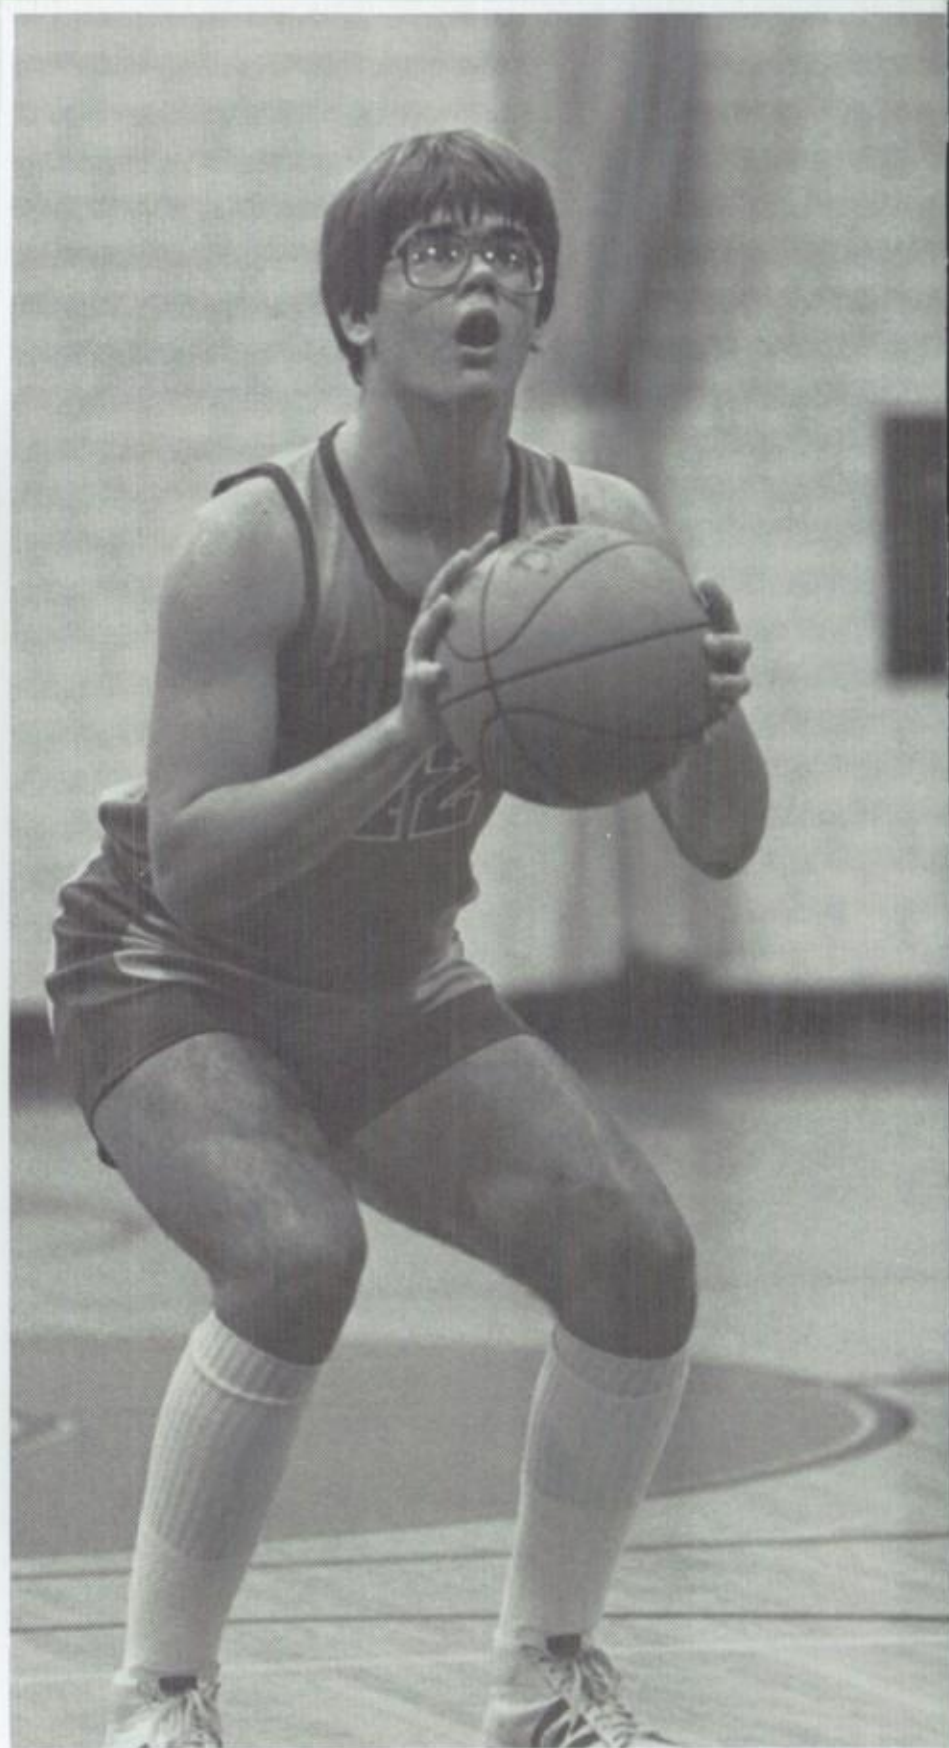

Several team members were awarded league honors after the season. Cherrie Lauer and Phyllis Arbogast were named to the first team S.C.L. while Karen Brickner was named to the second team S.C.L.

With several returning letter-winners, the Chieftains should be in good shape and ready to meet the challenges next year has to offer.

*Character
And Dignity
Hold Team Together*

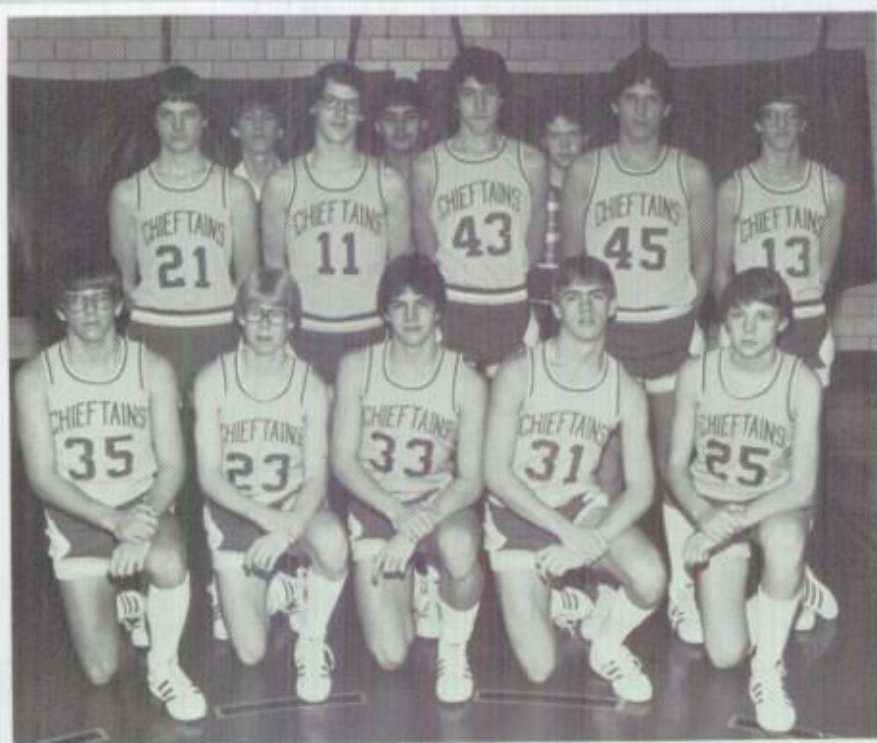

The Chiefs outlasted in the 83-84 season with a record of 7-15. Plenty of hard work and extra efforts took place within each individual's attempt to be the best he could be, unfortunately, there were hard times too. The bench was the resting place of two of the season's starters. These serious injuries held the team back, but not down. They never gave up—always strived for more. At the sectional tournaments, the mighty Chiefs defended their record to prove to themselves and to all that they were just as good as the other area teams, and they did just that. In the opening game against Lakeside, the team came out of an 11 point down-streak at the half to tie the game up at the 34-second marker of the fourth for an attempt at a win in overtime. The outcome was spectacular and the Chieftains continued onward to meet St. Wendelin for their final play in sectionals. We are supposed to take the good with the bad, the happy and the sad, so let us take the losses as lessons and the victories as accomplishments, but always look ahead to the future to make it as bright as it can be.

At the H-L boys winter banquet, Mr. Herge said it best. He stated that any team can accept winning, but it takes a special team to accept losing the way these players did. Throughout the season, they maintained their character and dignity; the two main characteristics of a winner. He paid tribute to the parents for their fine work on raising such fine, young men—a team whose dedication to a cause never wavered and a group of players any school would be proud of.

The Mean, Mean Wrestling Machine

Standing proud in their new warm-ups, the H-L wrestling squad represented Hopewell-Loudon in fine tradition this year.

Functioning like a well-oiled machine, the team racked up victory after victory. Their list of accomplishments include: a new dual meet record of 6-2, a 3rd position in the L.S.C., a 62-9 defeat of Riverdale and a 53-21 defeat of long time rival St. Wendelin.

While the squad accomplished much as a team, they also reached great achievements as individuals.

John Myers captured three new records consisting of most takedowns in both a season and a career and most individual championships in a season. One of these championships occurred at the VanBuren Invitational, and he was also the first H-L wrestler to win a championship there. John and Steve Zoeller earned second team honors in the L.S.C.

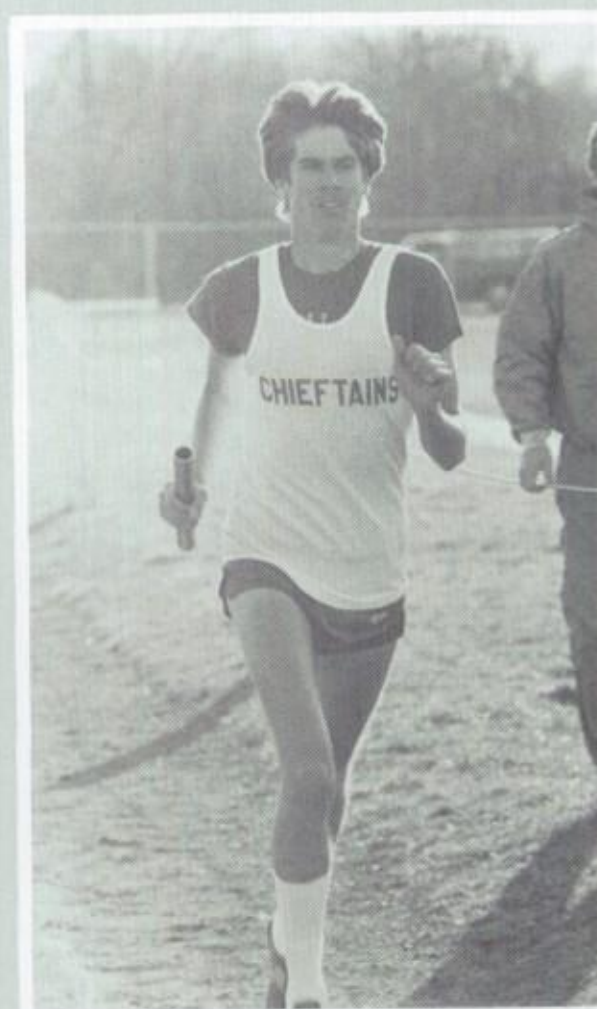

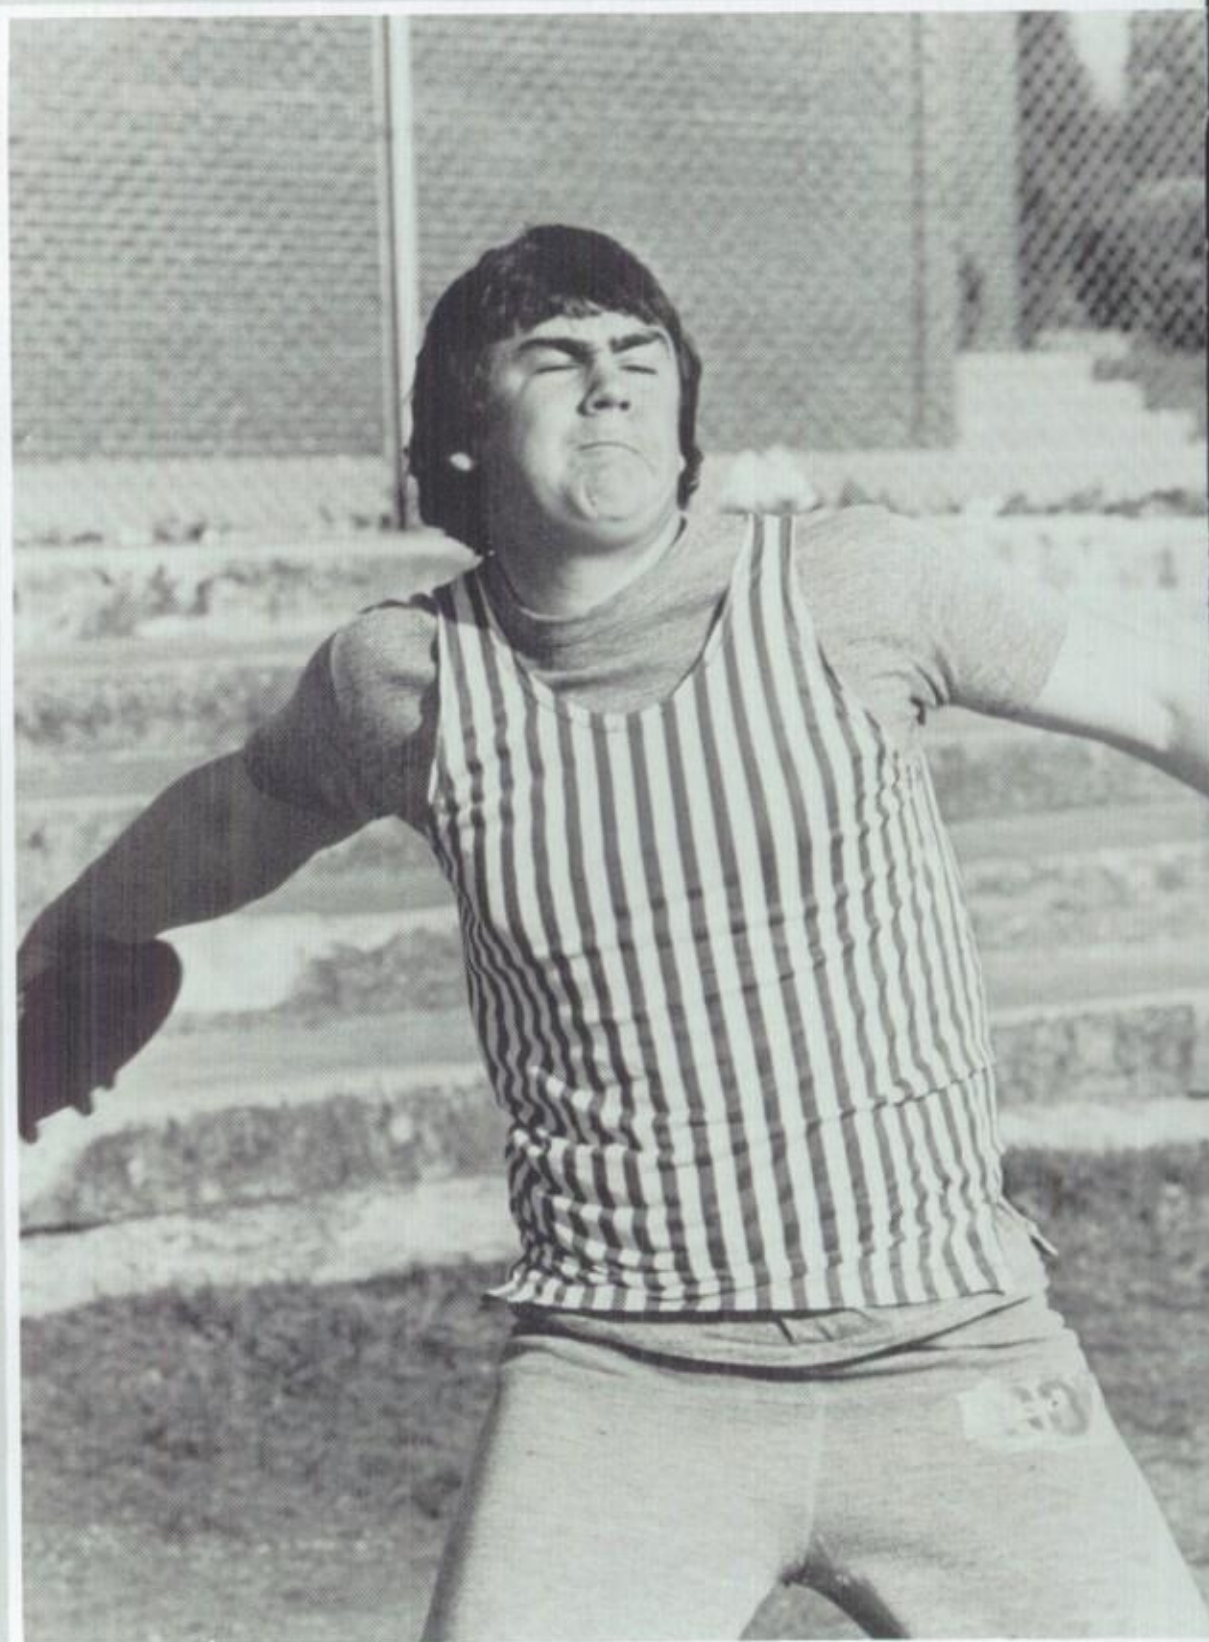

Other outstanding wrestlers for H-L included Jim Anderson and Kevin Scaife, who shared the trophy for most pins, and also Dennis Welly, who was voted most improved.

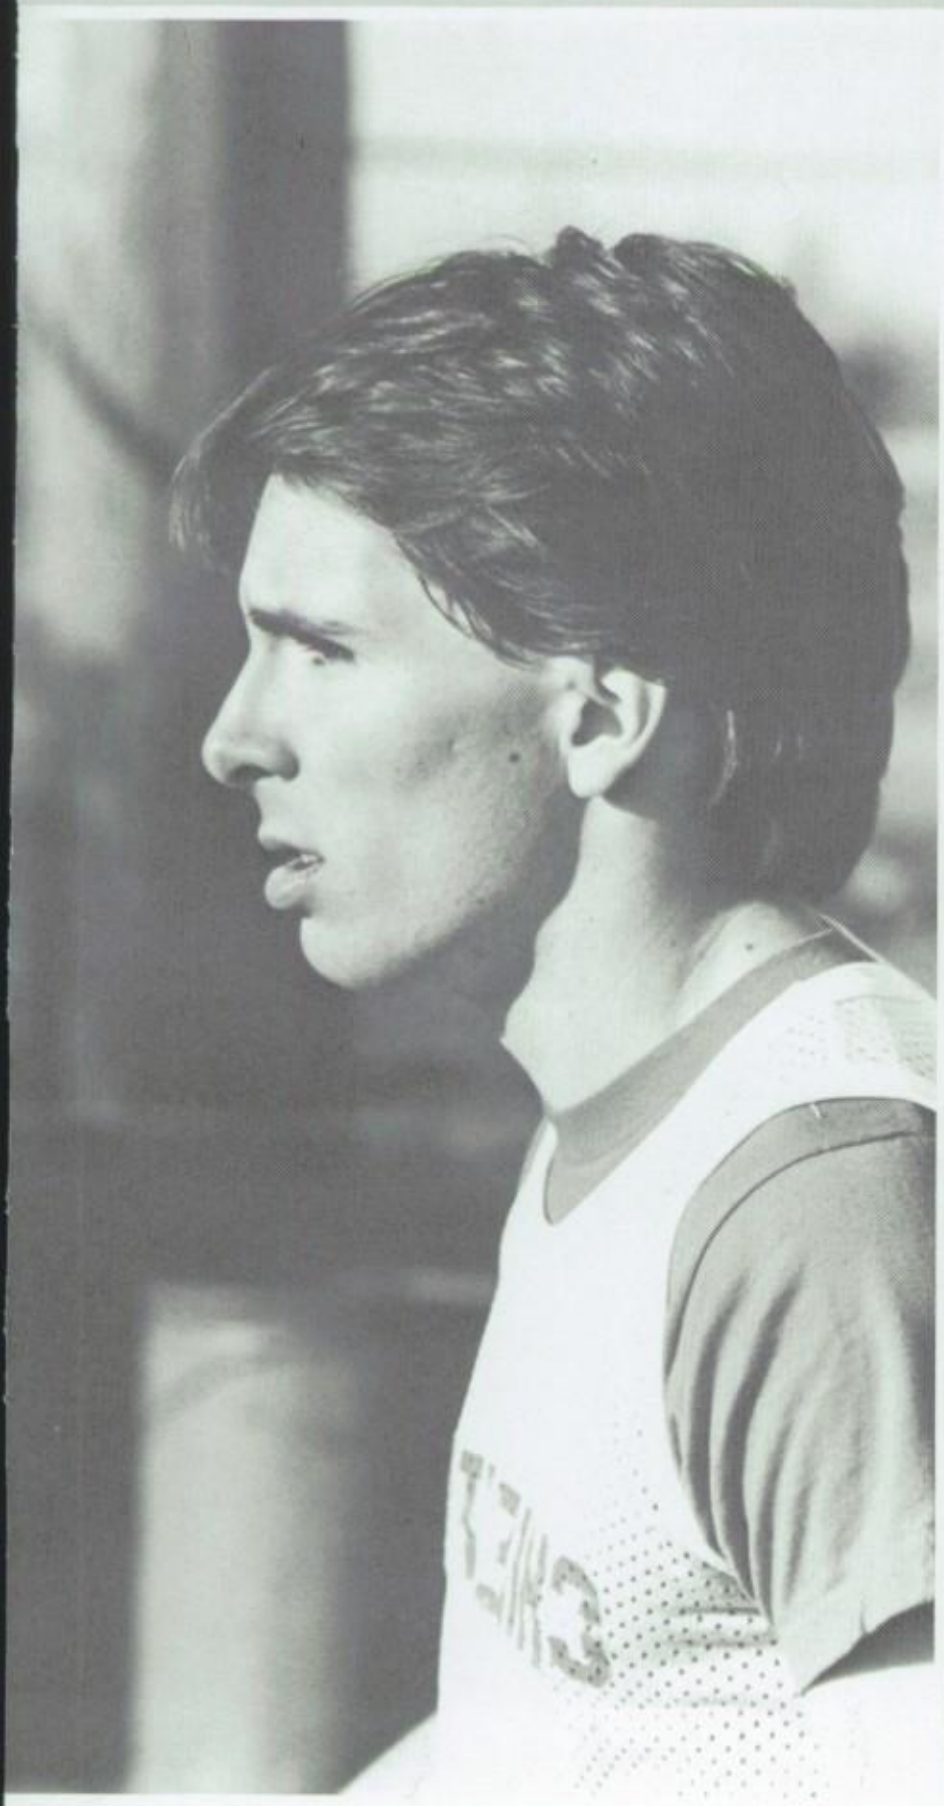

The J. V. team also had a fine season. They had a dual meet record of 5-1, were 1st at the H-L J. V. Tournament and were 6th at the Woodmore tournament. Both teams are hoping for great accomplishments next year.

Individuals Advance To Regionals

If the H-L boys' track team was reminded of any lessons this year, the most important must have been that winning is not always easy.

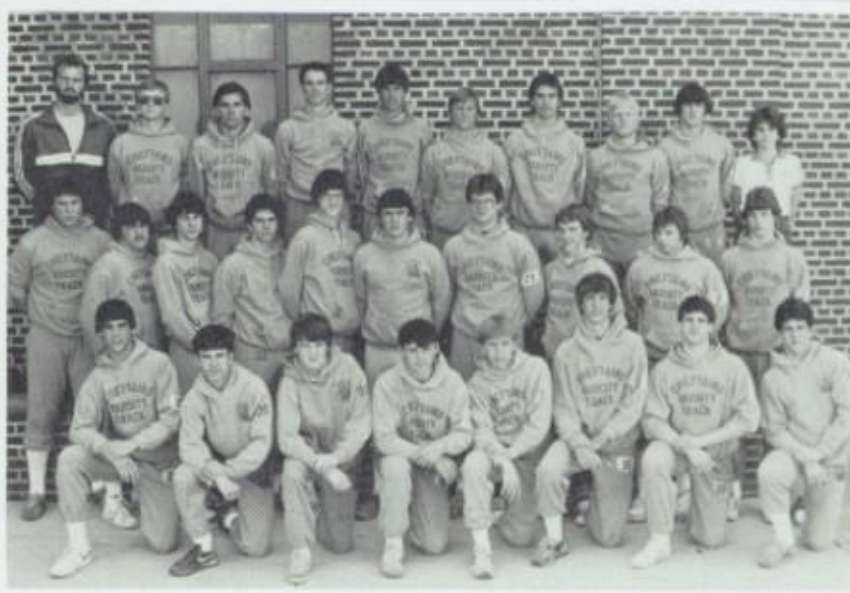

They boys' team had to fight rain, wind and biting temperatures as well as tough teams throughout the season.

Despite these terrible conditions, the team was very productive thanks to their fierce, competitive spirit and improved performances by many team members.

Some of the team's highlights included a third place finish in the Schultz and Krause Relays and a second place finish in the S.C.L.

The Chieftains had many outstanding individual accomplishments this season. Two new records were set this year: Ron Seifert, Kyle Hohman, Jeff Margraf, and Keith Hohman in the two-mile relay, and Keith Hohman in the two-mile run.

Many of the team members also competed at districts in Bowling Green. Advancing to regionals were Keith Hohman (two-mile run), Bob Nye (long jump), Jon Nugent (long jump), Allen Fruth (pole vault), and the two-mile relay team.

Girls Maintain Undefeated Record

The season started off slowly for the Lady Chieftains. Many practices and several meets were cancelled because of the rain, cold temperatures or a flooded track.

However, the girls were not to be defeated by a little "sprinkling". The girls' team entered into the season with two goals in mind. They wanted to maintain an undefeated dual meet record and to win the Seneca County League championship.

The Chieftain team achieved these goals and through the course of the season, received many other honors. The team also captured the L.S.C. and the Schultz Relay titles. They finished with a dual meet record of 4-0.

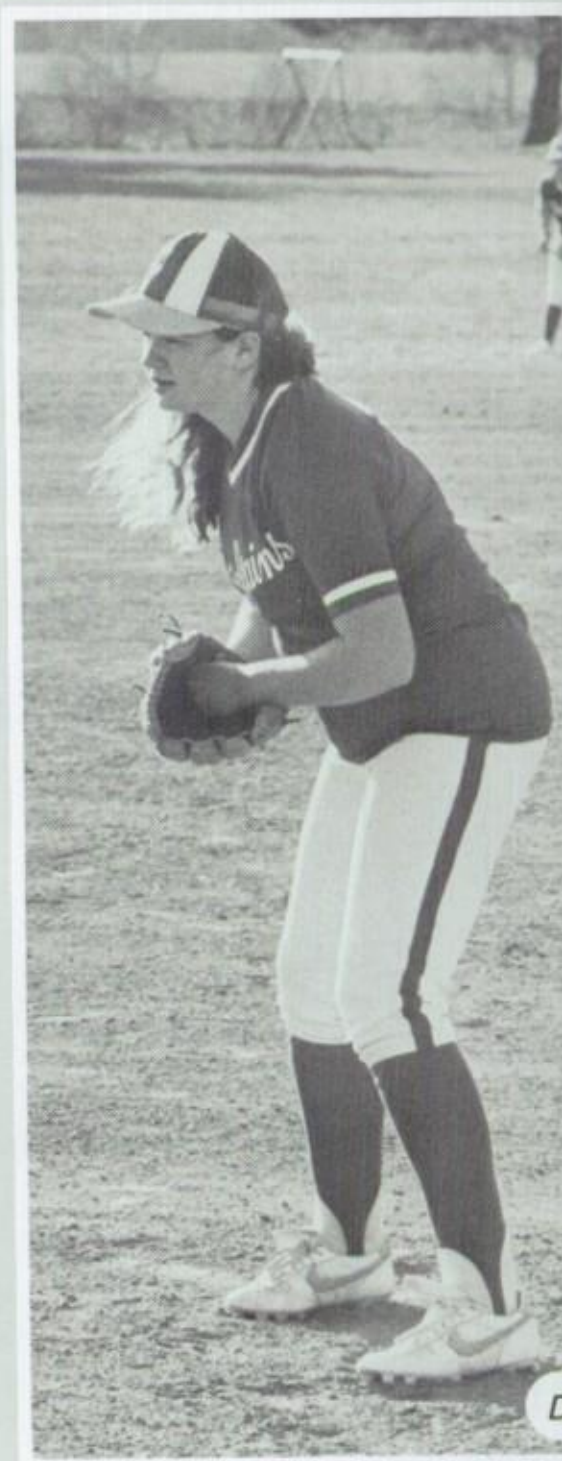

The team competed in post-season action at district and advanced several runners and two relay teams to regionals. One runner, Karen Brickner, advanced to state competition in the 100-meter dash.

Congratulations to Mr. Crandall and his team on a fine year and good luck next season.

Two of the most important characteristics of a winner are sportsmanship and the ability to adjust to change. The Hopewell-Loudon softball team was forced to make several adjustments for the 1984 season.

The most important change occurred with the loss of Coach Wolfe and the acquirement of a new coach, Ed Borer. The team had to adjust to a new style of coaching and in accomplishing this, turned out a very successful season.

The team totals included a second place finish in the S.C.L. with a record of 6-2 and a third place finish in the L.S.C. at 2-2. Several team records were broken also. These consisted of most runs, most RBI's, and most stolen bases.

There were also many individual accomplishments this year. Tammy Cobb was selected as the team's M.V.P. and she was also selected, by a unanimous decision, to the first team in both the S.C.L. and L.S.C.

Other players also received league honors. These included: Michelle Bell, 1st team L.S.C. and 2nd team S.C.L.; Denise Meeker and Kathy Speessen, 2nd team L.S.C. and S.C.L.

It is evident from both team and individual accomplishments that the softball players adjusted very well to their new coach.

Coach Borer appropriately summed up the season. "It was a very rewarding season for me. I'm very proud of all the girls and am looking forward to the future."

The Hopewell-Loudon baseball team had to overcome many obstacles this season. Jim Dillard, the new head coach, led this young team through what was to be a very tough season. Finishing with a record of 6-8, the team had to fight inclement weather all season long.

Several highlights of the year included a 6-4 victory over long-time rival, St. Wendelin, and a 10-3 victory over Danbury Lakeside. League selections included: Sean Clouse, first team S.C.L. and second team L.S.C.; Jeff Craft, second team S.C.L. and first team L.S.C.; Todd Boes, second team S.C.L. and Honorable mention L.S.C.

The 1984 season was a tough one for this year's players. At times, they didn't get the results that they would have liked, but they were in every game one hundred percent and never gave up.

With the loss of one senior, Sean Clouse, next year's team will prove to be a competitive one.

Preparing For The Future

Jr. High athletes are the backbone for Hopewell-Loudon's future athletic teams.

What these young people learn in jr. high is often learned in detail and applied at the high school level.

One jr. high team that stood out from the rest was the football team.

This team, under the guidance of Coach Pressler, went undefeated with a record of 7-0. Their first six games were shutouts. No one scored against them until their last game.

All of the jr. high teams had a worthwhile year, in that they now have learned the base from which their high school athletic career will build.

With the excellent jr. high system at H-L, we are confident that the fine tradition will continue.

Unity From Contrast

They say that opposites attract, and if this is the case, the H-L Scarlet & Gray Staff surely fits the description. Sixteen very different people joined together to create this unique annual. Each individual developed his/her own ideas for the seven sections of our book. Others provided specialty services. Together they assembled the pieces to form a united theme.

The academic section was created under the direction of Jane Varney who also assisted in ad sales. The music section was composed by Bob Goshe, a veteran on the staff. The senior section came from the imagination of experienced yearbooker and head photographer, Berta Alvarado. The underclassmen section was compiled through the joint efforts of Laura Schreiner, Lisa Schoonover, Louise Engle, Cassie Perrine, and Kim Marks. The new community section was developed by editor Wesley Tiell and Ted DeMars. Feature stories were done by Tricia Main and Berta. The sports section was generated by talented Jill Bronson who also took on the responsibility for the Little Indian. The groups and events section was formulated from the ideas of top sales representative and outstanding new member, Tricia Main.

Specialty positions were: Artist, Pam Hoffman; Journalists, Mona Sayre and Kelley Babb; Typists, Michelle Hoover and Betsy Brickner. Elena Slosser was also instrumental in theme development.

The staff as a unit received two very special awards. One is the "Big E" award which is given by Josten's only to the most efficient staffs and a $200 cash award for top number of ads sold in the district. We are very proud of our accomplishments and hope you enjoy the results of our Hard Day's Year's Work.

Keeping America On The Grow

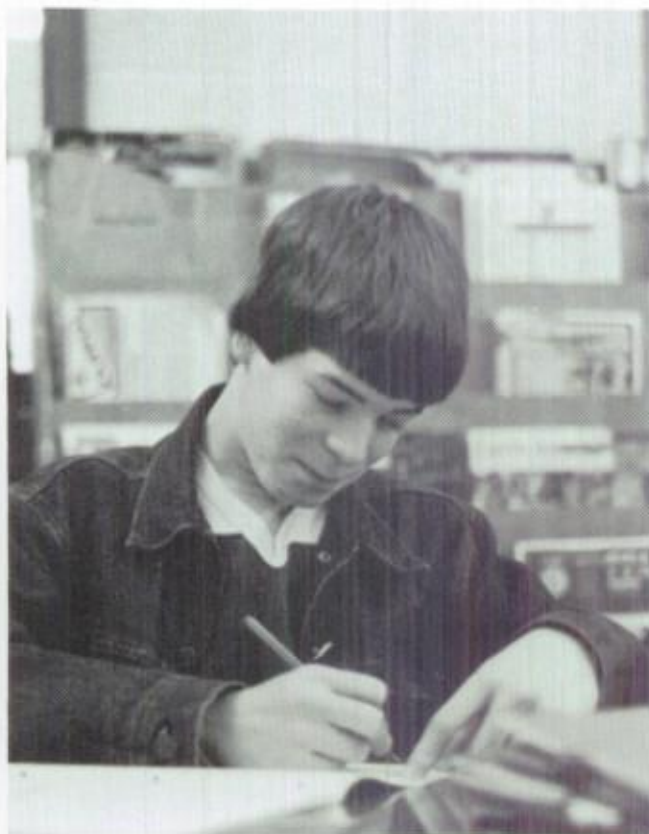

The Future Farmers of America is an organization founded on the belief that the promise of better days ahead depends on the leadership, faith, training, and ability of today's youth, and that revision and improved efficiency in agricultural life will benefit not only the individual but society as a whole.

The Future Farmers of America chapter at Hopewell-Loudon proceeded through the year in fine fashion.

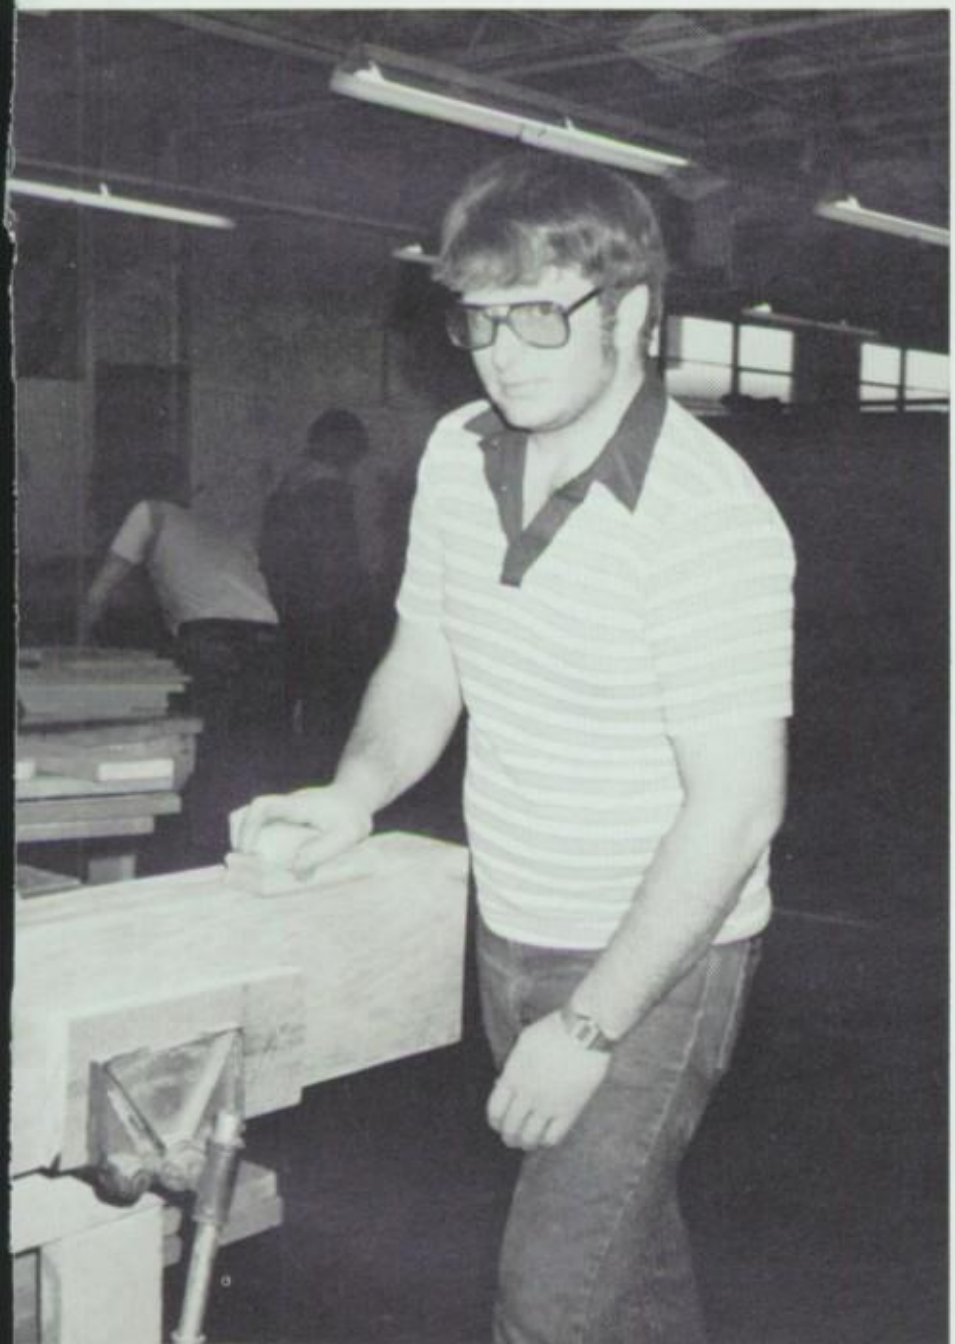

Through the hard work and dedication that is required to be a productive future farmer, these young people accomplished many things. Their desire to achieve carried many of them to the district contest in the areas of Soils, Livestock, Tractor Trouble Shooting, and Treasury Record.

David Elchert, Rocky Cassidy and Jerry Hammer also went on to state judging in the Dairy classification.

Congratulations to Mr. Hayes and the FFA chapter on a productive year and good luck next year.

Up, Up, And Away!

In the midst of balloons, formal gowns, and tuxedos was where many of the students and faculty members of Hopewell-Loudon found themselves on the evening of May 5, 1984. The much anticipated evening of the Junior-Senior Prom had arrived.

There were a number of attractions that the happy couples could enjoy. They could dance non-stop to the top hits of the day while enjoying the light show provided by High Fidelity. For a personal touch, couples were able to make requests and dedications.

Many of the couples also took part in dancing's primary counterpart—dining. This counterpart came in the form of a midnight buffet prepared by the Mohawk Country Club staff. A large variety of foods (everything from fresh fruits to mini-quiches) were enjoyed by all who indulged.

If the attendance and participation were any indication, then the prom of '84 was indeed a smashing success.

Nearing The End Of

A Hard Day Year

The problems, situations, and challenges which we face during our Hopewell-Loudon years often serve as a practice field for the more important ones that lie ahead. This year, we were spectators to some difficult local and national concerns.

Right here is Bascom, anxiety heightened as robbers of the Commerical Bank used the school parking lot as a rendezvous point. We held our breaths as news of the Beirut bombing reached the U.S. We then braced ourselves for the repeated aftershock; numerous lost lives at the American post. At this time, several of the students who had enlisted in the Marines thought seriously about their future. Even in the wake of Beirut, tension mounted in Central America. U.S. forces were once again summoned to repulse Cuban infiltration in Grenada. This time losses were minimal and the results parallel with our objectives. The year 1984 also saw the demise of Andropov, the Soviet leader, then anticipated the policies of his successor, Chernenko.

Policies here were scrutinized as primaries were held across the nation, and through a bright feather in the current administration's cap, the economy, though not yet cured, is gradually returning to health.

One international event convened despite worldwide conflict. The Sarajevo Winter Olympics gave a local skater, Scott Hamilton of Bowling Green, Ohio, the opportunity for the gold medal. The U.S. team's spirits, which were already soaring, were sent even higher as skier Phil Mahre's capture of the gold coincided with the time which his wife gave birth back home.

One name that has become synonymous with music, is that of Michael Jackson. Through his extra ordinary album, Thriller, and the remarkably produced videos which corresponded, he has singlehandedly revitalized the record industry. He remains a refreshing idol of our time, drug-free, family-oriented, yet humble.

With the new music, came a new form of recreation, break-dancing. Originating in the streets of the city, it combines physical agility with creativity and produces a completely new form of dance. H-L came out from the country for a glimpse of this art with the involvement of Steve Sendelbach and Jim Hoover.

Is it the end or simply another beginning? Emotions run high as seniors launch into their new roles.

Our practice field has in it the decision makers of tomorrow. The seniors redeemed their somewhat rowdy reputation with academic excellence and one additional National Merit Scholar, Keith Hohman. School organizations are training individuals for adult roles. FHA is proud to send a member for the second straight year to National Competition in the informative speech category. Also residing in our small community is the 1984-85 State FHA president, Karen Schriener. Perhaps what makes these accomplishments and others possible is the attitude of the Hopewell-Loudon student body who constantly strive for greater achievements and the support they receive from faculty and family members. Any sportsman knows that it takes determination, pride, dedication, and many hours of practice. After all, not matter what the goal, if it is to be accomplished, it takes a hard day's year's work.

Suddenly there is lots to think about, for Kelli Zoeller time slips by, responsibilities mount, and decisions have to be made.
